Yankee Bluejackets Landed to Protect

The Transit and Telegraph Line of the City.

Panama May be Attacked at Any Moment.

Washington, Nov. 21.—The Secretary of the Navy has received the following cablegram from Captain Perry commanding the Battleship Iowa, dated at Panama today: "Everything is quiet. No further interference since notification. Transit and telegraphic communication is open. Colon is in possession of the Liberals and quiet."

Colon, Nov. 21.—Col. Barrera, the commander of the liberal forces, has notified the former officials of the government that he has appointed a commission to take over the offices formally today. The feeling of the community cannot be regarded as antagonistic to the liberals.

Existing conditions have created no panic but it is a recognized fact Liberal hold on Colon while natives are in Panama creates a state of affairs which cannot possibly continue. Col Barrera admits that the government troops here numbered less than 120, men.

The Liberals claim to be in possession of all railroad stations between here and La Cade. No immediate attack on Panama is contemplated. The United States gunboat Macias, it is understood, will not interfere with the fighting but will protect railroad and foreign interests.

JUNCTION CITY, Kas., Nov. 21.—W. D. Buchanan of Troop D, Fourteenth Cavalry located at Fort Riley, who killed policeman White and Cooper on Tuesday committed suicide in his cell here last night by hanging, having made a rope of a towel.

A Revived Novelist.
Twenty-five years ago Charles Heber Clark wrote a number of stories that had a wide circle of readers, under the pseudonym of Max Adler. Later he turned his attention to political economy. Now he concludes that "does not embody wisdom in the most popular form and reverts to fiction. In the Tales of Old Tarley he has been amusing the readers of the Saturday Evening Post, and this volume is called "Captain Bluff," likewise one of those tales. While there is much instruction and some entertainment in this book, and it can be said to be far superior in sentiment to much fiction that is printed, the author is a little glib and does not doubt that what he thinks is funny and dramatic entertaining must appear so to other people, when that does not necessarily follow. The book is well printed and bound, price $1.50. From the press of Henry T. Oates & Co., Publishers, Philadelphia. Trade supplied by Patton Brothers, Bookellers, Salem, Oregon.

GERMAN PRAISE FOR US

Strongly Approve of American Methods

As Applied to the Philippine Islands.

Germans will Hustle for Trade There.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The German view of American administration in the Philippines is set out in a circular recently issued by the German Central Bureau for the Preparation of Commercial Treaties, a copy of which has been sent to the State Department by Deputy Consul General Haugner, at Frankfurt, under date of October 26. Mr. Haugner says that the German press has watched our movements in our new possessions with an eye inclined to be critical, but no voice has been raised as to the beneficial change effected in the condition of the Philippines by American rule. The circular says:

"Although the pacification of the Philippine archipelago has not yet fully been established the accounts of its economic development are so favorable that it cannot be too strongly urged upon German exporters to give particular attention to this group of islands. The testimony cannot be withheld that the American administration of affairs in the Philippines has as far as economic betterment of the country is concerned, already achieved extraordinary success."

"In 1894, which was the last year of peaceful conditions while under Spanish rule, the Philippine imports reached $28,500,000. The exports were $33,100,000 Mexican in value. Under American rule the imports increased in 1899 to $40,000,000 and in 1900 to $53,500,000 Mexican, and the exports to $38,500,000 and $54,400,000, respectively. Military supplies are not included in these figures."

"For German interests it is essential to know whether exports from the United States will receive preferential treatment, and it is noteworthy that the tariff schedule proposed by the United States Commission in Manila retains the present features of all rates on all imports, heretofore from the United States or other countries."

movement to secure the pardon of Libbie Garbrant, who has been in the State Prison at Trenton for 29 years under a life sentence for the murder of Ransom F. Burrows, an old man with whom she lived.

During the last 15 years repeated efforts have been made to have her pardoned. Every request was ignored. The W. C. T. U. expects to have at least 10,000 names to its petition when it is presented to the board of pardons, now in session. Mrs. M. H. Scall, who has been the W. C. T. U. visitor at the State Prison for 14 years and many others say Libbie has thoroughly reformed.

The crime of which Libbie Garbrant was convicted was committed in the spring of 1872. She lived with Burrows in Patterson and among the visitors to her home was Bogart Van Winkle, a young man about town. Van Winkle believed the old man had considerable money and influenced Libbie to take his life by poisoning his food.

MAKES GOO-GOO EYES

Russia Will Make Love to Marquis Ito.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Vienna Politische Correspondent says a dispatch from the Austrian Capital, publishes an apparently inspired communication from St. Petersburg. It says that during the approaching visit of Marquis Ito to St. Petersburg he will have an opportunity of satisfying himself as to the friendly disposition of Russia toward Japan.

The only difference between the two countries, says the article, are those in regard to the Korean question. There have, however, been several arrangements between Russia and Japan respecting Korean affairs. In 1898 a protocol signed in Tokyo emphatically proclaimed the sovereign rights and independence of Korea while stipulating the mutual obligations of Russia and Japan to abstain from all immediate interference in Korean affairs. At the same time Russia recognized the importance of Japanese commercial and industrial enterprises and promised that she would place no hindrance in the way of their development. The Cabinet at St. Petersburg, says the communication is still inspired by the same sentiments.

Governors to Fight Railway.
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 21.—The following statement was given out from Governor Van Sant's office today:

"Owing to the great interest of the people of the West and the great desire to see the attempt to consolidate the great Northern and Northern Pacific Railway lines resisted, Governor Van Sant has concluded to invite the Governors of the states having anti-consolidation laws similar to those of Minnesota to join in the effort to fight the great railway trust."

It is understood that a conference of Governors is to be planned to consider the best methods of fighting the Northern Securities Company in the courts and by new legislation if necessary.

HOPE ALMOST GONE

Miners Entombed at Telluride Must Die

22 Bodies Recovered, 75 Still in Danger.

Fire Started Yesterday From Defective Flue.

TELLURIDE, Colo., Nov. 21.—Persons who came into town this morning from the Smuggler Union mine four miles distant say workers have almost abandoned the hope of finding any of the imprisoned men alive. Every few minutes men rush inside only to crawl back as they meet foul smoke. Officers of the company say the work will be hastened in the hope that many may be found alive. It is believed fifty to seventy-five men are still imprisoned. Twenty two bodies were recovered last night.

The Complete Story.

Nov. 21.—Nearly 100 men were probably suffocated to death in the Smuggler-Union mine in Marshall Basin as the result of a fire which consumed the buildings at the mouth of the Bullion tunnel. Twenty two miners are known to be dead and scores of others are in the mine workings either suffocated to death or seeking safety in remote parts of the mine until the place is cleared of foul gases and smoke. Fire broke out in the tramway bunk house at the mouth of the Bullion tunnel.

The principal opening from which the property is worked, and spread rapidly to the boiler and engine house, and blacksmith shop. The tramway terminal with its great ore bins and several smaller buildings were all soon wrapped in flames. A strong draft drew the smoke from the burning buildings directly into the tunnel and the miles of drifts, uprisings and slopes, connecting with it began to fill rapidly with the smoke.

In the excitement of trying to control the fire in the outside buildings, the mine was forgotten and before the situation was realized the workings were fast filling with dense smoke. By this time the buildings about the mouth of the tunnel were all ablaze and nothing could be done to stop the smoke from going in.

As soon as it was possible great bodies of rock were blown down into the tunnel mouth and the opening stopped, but not until the workings were filled and the smoke working its way through the shaft to the surface a mile or more up the mountain from the tunnel house. The day shift, some two hundred men, had gone into the mine and reached their stations before the fire started.

It is known that some of the men escaped through the old Sheridan tunnel and also through the old Union workings, but they are thought to have been but a small part of the force in the mine. The Smuggler-Union is the largest mine in the Telluride district, the output being about two thirds of the total from the camp. It is owned by New York and Boston capitalists.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 21.—A special to the Post from Telluride says, the work of rescuing the bodies of miners who were suffocated to death in the Smuggler Union Mine, yesterday was resumed at nine o'clock this morning. It is not expected that all bodies will be recovered before midnight at the earliest.

There may be 50 more bodies in the mine. All the bodies recovered were brought down upon the shoulders of the miners with difficulty, the trail being very steep. Shift bosses Horgeson and Barkley sacrificed their lives in a vain attempt to save the lives of their mine associates.

They could have escaped, but instead they went into the workings to spread the alarm. The coroner will hold an inquest upon but one body. There is talk of raising a relief fund for the widows and orphans of the dead.

They all have agreed to pay an increase of 2 1/2 cents an hour in wages to their employees to make up for the reduction in hours.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 21.—James Morrow, aged twenty-two, son of Supt. Wolf of the Zwicker Iron works was found murdered this morning in East Portland. Jealousy is the supposed cause.

CUBA IN BAD SHAPE

Its Only Salvation Lies in Annexation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Lieutenant

Commander Lucien Young, of the United States Navy has arrived here from Havana on leave of absence. He is Captain of the Port at that city, and has charge of all marine matters in Cuba. In discussing the relations between Cuba and the United States, he expressed himself in favor of annexation saying:

"The economic conditions of Cuba at the present time are worse than ever in its history, even worse than at the close of the 10 years war. Its sugar is being sold at $3.13 1/2 for 100 pounds, when it costs $3.70 per 100 pounds to raise it; 10 per cent of the tobacco crop is unsold and sweating in the barns. There is not a candidate booked for office in the Senate or in the Congress who could sign his name for a $5 check."

"All the successful industries of Cuba are dependent on the United States and annexation is the only salvation of Cuba, for annexation means free trade with us."

FRANCE'S GREAT DANGER

Means Life or Death for the Republic

If a General Strike of Mines Occurs.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The question of a general strike of the French miners, says a Paris correspondent is again causing anxiety. Since the reopening of the chambers, the Premier, the Minister of Commerce and the Minister of Public Works have been kept busy with audiences in which they formulated their opinions. The labor exchanges ring nightly with speeches by stump orators.

The miners three demands shorter hours, more pay and pensions would if granted, says the correspondent, involve an annual expense to the state of 80,000,000 francs.

The dispatch says it is evident that the leaders of the miners take no real interest in a complete settlement. The men's demands, if granted, would inevitably cause the ruin of the majority of mine proprietors and shareholders.

If, the correspondent declares, the general strike takes place, it will prove a question of life or death to the republic. The importation of foreign coal would result in violence on the part of the miners. What would be the conduct of the soldiers, so the object of the incitations of the reactionaries and socialists?

The correspondent asks: "Can the government count on the troops?"

A FIEND ESCAPES LYNCHING

By a Very Narrow Margin in Missouri

He Murdered Two Deputy Sheriffs in Cold Blood.

His Wife and Three Negroes Are Implicated.

OXFORD, Miss., Nov. 21.—Will Mathis charged with the murder of two Deputy Marshals, Montgomery by name, walked into Dallas, 12 miles south of here, tonight and surrendered. Mathis has been closely pursued, and, realizing that his capture was certain, gave himself up and asked for protection. He was turned over to the posse and started for Oxford.

When the news reached Oxford there was great excitement. Bonfires were built, and many threats of summary vengeance heard on all sides. Addresses were made by the local officers, and cool-headed business men, and tonight the excitement has subsided, and it is believed that the threatened lynching has been averted. The local officers announcing that they will protect the prisoner at all hazards.

Mrs. Mathis and three negroes are under arrest at Oxford, charged with complicity in the murders. The negroes are George and Bill Jackson and Orlando Lanter. Lanter states that Mathis induced the officers to spend the night at his house and shot them after they had gone to bed, Lanter holding the lamp.

The negro procured the gun for Mathis from Mat Owens, Mathis' father-in-law. The latter loaded the gun with buckshot before sending it to Mathis. Mrs. Mathis confessed to being in the house when her husband did the killing. She left for her father's soon afterward, and Mathis, the negro, says, robbed the bodies of watches, money and pistols, pulled the bodies on the floor, placed a straw mattress over them and set it on fire.

Mrs. Mathis and the negro both admit that Bill Jackson, who left before the shooting occurred, tried to prevail on Mathis not to commit the crime. A guard was placed around the county jail in Oxford last night, as there were threats of lynching.
